Yule Brook College and the Aboriginal Community, Parents and Students

believe the basis of this agreement is founded on the following understandings

Reconciliation and Cooperation is the basis of college and community interaction and the education of our students

Aboriginal culture is unique and is important to Yule Brook College's indigenous people and the identity of the college

Education is the key to the future for the Aboriginal students of Yule Brook College

Successful education of Aboriginal students is a result of a strong and positive relationship between the college, parents and the Aboriginal community

Parents and the Aboriginal Community play a key role in the education of their children and commit to work in a spirit of cooperation and harmony with the college to advance their children's learning

ALL Aboriginal students graduate at the end of Year 10

ALL Aboriginal students will be encouraged to complete Year 12

YBC is a "no shame" college

YBC creates a learning environment that nurtures and encourages students to take pride in self, family, and take their place in the wider community
